Leseprobe

This block contains the first system of a musical score, measures 14 through 17. It is written for piano in a key with one flat (B-flat). The notation includes a treble and bass staff joined by a brace. The music features a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some rests. A large, bold, black text 'Leseprobe' is superimposed over the right side of the system.

18

This block contains the second system of the musical score, measures 18 through 21. The notation continues with similar rhythmic patterns. A large, circular black logo is superimposed over the center of the system. The logo depicts a white silhouette of a person's head and shoulders, facing right, holding an open book. The year '1719' is printed in white on the book. The text 'Leseprobe' from the previous block is also visible, partially obscured by the logo.

Sample page

This block contains the third system of the musical score, measures 22 through 25. The notation concludes with a double bar line. A large, bold, black text 'Sample page' is superimposed over the right side of the system.

Herr Christ, der ein'ge Gottes Sohn oder Herr Gott, nun sei gepreiset

BWV 601

Sample page

The image displays a sample page of a musical score for Johann Sebastian Bach's BWV 601, "Herr Christ, der ein'ge Gottes Sohn oder Herr Gott, nun sei gepreiset". The score is written for a single melodic line (likely a voice or a single instrument) and a basso continuo line. The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is common time (C). The score is divided into two systems, each with two staves. The first system is marked with a '1.' and the second system with a '2.'. The score is overlaid with a large, semi-transparent watermark that reads "Leseprobe" and "Sample page". A circular logo is also present, featuring a white silhouette of a horse's head and neck, facing right, holding a dark book with the year "1719" written on it.
